WRIT PETITION No.1137 of 2007

ORAL JUDGMENT (Per the Honourable Smt. Justice T.Meenakumari)

The present writ petition is filed by the petitioner seeking a direction to the un-official respondents to produce her husband viz., Donthoju Narasimha Chari or his body before this Court.

It is the case of the petitioner that her parents in law who are respondents-4 and 5 are responsible for missing of her husband and he has been found missing since the last 4 years.

When the matter is taken up for hearing, both the parties are physically present and when the unofficial respondents-4 and 5 are questioned, they have expressed their innocence as to the whereabouts of their son. Both the parties have arrived at a settlement with the permission of the Court and in pursuance of the same, respondents-4 and 5 have filed a memo to the effect that they have agreed to pay an amount of Rs.1,25,000/- towards permanent alimony by way of installments as mentioned therein to the petitioner. It is further stipulated in the memo that in case their son is traced in future and both the petitioner and their son intend to live together, the petitioner has to refund the said amount.

In view of the facts and circumstances of the case and in view of the settlement arrived at between the parties, We feel it appropriate to refer the matter to the Lok Adalat for passing appropriate orders.

At this stage, the learned counsel for the petitioner represents that the petitioner may be given liberty to take away the articles, which are belonging to her only and lying with respondents-4 and 5.

The Lok Adalat, may consider the same while passing the order in this matter.

The Registry is directed to place the matter in question before the Lok Adalat so as to call the matter on 8.3.2007. However, it is made clear that both the parties shall attend before the Lok Adalat, High Court Branch on 8.3.2007.

Accordingly, W.P. is closed.
